

3AM - Driftwood. (Featuring LVNDVN)

Shit ain't all nice where I'm from
I've been really really singing love songs
Tell you a story to my lads
Where the broken hearts don't shine
Silhouettes of a dream broken
I couldn't really go down the right road
I've been sipping Liquor on a late night
With a strong vibe and I swear that they head strong

Ain't seen the sunshine in a while where I'm from

Shit ain't all nice where I'm from Fluid in my mind and the light strong
Trying to my make it out with a sing song
Two-way street and they both wrong
She said that she's working all night long
Out on the strip where the lights strong
Told her our love was life long
Lie by the sword that we die from

So much is broken
so much is aching
So much is hoping
So much is pain

I've sipping Liquor on a late night
With a good vibe and you know I come alive
Kissing on a soul that I tongue tired
And she wanna ride out to the sunrise

If you want a don on the wrong side

Take a look at my life

I know it don't seem rite

But ain't no open sides
